

This scholarship has been established in Dan Campbell's memory. For almost 30 years he worked as a Communications Associate in CSEA's Capital Region 4 Office. Dan was popularly known as the "Spokesman" for his high profile in the Capital District as the voice of CSEA and working families. His commitment to unionism as well as his personal values and character made him a beloved figure who still touches the lives of all who knew him. He was truly someone who would rather light a candle than curse the darkness.

- A 2023 high school graduate.
- A parent or guardian who is a member of CSEA's Capital Region.
- Accepted to an accredited institution of higher education, vocational and/or trade school in New York State.

- A short essay on the topic: Please choose a man or woman in Labor's History and describe his/her impact on the present day labor movement.

Applicants must submit this completed application and essay by email no later than April 17, 2023.

Email: csearegion4@cseainc.org
Call with any questions: 518-782-4400