August 1, 2019

The return to school in September is something which – at this point in the summer recess – I view with mixed emotion... all at once eager for us all to get back to fulfilling our shared mission, but simultaneously anxious about the sheer volume of work which remains.

Nonetheless (and ready or not! 😊) opening day for faculty and staff is Tuesday, September 3, 2019. Students will return on September 4, 2019. An itinerary of our opening day exercises is enclosed.

Our summertime hiring is nearly complete, and Principals are excited to introduce our new colleagues. The typical cleaning and repair activities continue, and our Buildings & Grounds staff are eager to unveil, as always, shiny and polished facilities for our return.

I hope that August is both restful and productive for you, and I look forward to seeing you on September 3rd, and to resuming our important work.

Best until then,

Jay Lebrun
