Announcement of School Closure Tuesday, January 11, 2022

January 10, 2022

Dear Plattsburgh CSD parents, faculty, and staff:

All Plattsburgh CSD schools will be closed tomorrow, Tuesday, January 11, 2022. This emergency closure day has been applied both because of the inclement weather forecast, and because of a projected staffing shortage which will strain our ability to safely open school for in-person instruction.

To be clear, tomorrow will not be a day of remote instruction. Rather, it will take the form of a traditional emergency closure (aka 'snow') day. As such, per the approved 2021-22 School Calendar (which specifies how unused emergency closure days will be 'returned'), March 25, 2022 will be a regular school day.

Remote tutoring for isolated, quarantined, and homebound students will also not take place tomorrow. After-school activities and sports may take place at each Advisor's/Coach's discretion, provided adequate staffing for such is in-place.

We plan for a return to in-person instruction on Wednesday, January 12, 2022.

Please contact your child(ren)'s school building(s) if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Jay Lebrun
Superintendent of Schools
